The Crawford-Oscoda-Ogemaw-Roscommon Intermediate School District (COOR ISD) Board, at its regularly monthly meeting last week, authorized a November special education millage ballot proposal.

The special education proposal will be placed before voters on the Nov. 8 general election ballot.

"The approval came after receiving a request to do so from all the local district Boards of Education," said COOR ISD Board Vice President Bernadine Dosch. "The Boards of Crawford, Fairview, Mio, AuSable, West Branch-Rose City, Roscommon and Houghton Lake were unanimous in their message of support to ask the voters of their school districts to consider the millage increase of $.5852 to a total of 1.2181 on each $1,000 of taxable valuation in November." The service of seven Civil War Veterans, laid to rest in the Elmwood Cemetery, was honored last weekend.

The Crawford County Historical Society's fourth annual Elmwood Cemetery Walk was held on Saturday.

The Crawford County Historical Society choose to highlight the history of Civil War veterans buried in the Elmwood Cemetery. It is the 150th anniversary from when the War Between the States began.

Despite chilly, rainy weather conditions, the Cemetery Walk had a good turnout.

"The weather was so precarious, and I think that kept some people away, but the rain missed us," said Ginger Lyons, a Crawford County Historical Society volunteer.

There are 22 Civil War Veterans buried in the Elmwood Cemetery and a total of 60 Civil War veterans buried in Crawford County.

The lives and service of seven veterans were highlighted during the Cemetery Walk.

Information was compiled for the Cemetery Walk from the Crawford County Library, Nancy Stone, Janet Rechlin and the interpreters who portrayed the veterans and told their stories.

Board ponders duty split

Grayling Charter Township considers change to supervisor role

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

The Grayling Charter Township Board, at a special meeting last week, took the first step toward splitting administrative duties between a township supervisor and a proposed new township superintendent.

The board set a public hearing, which will be held at 10 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 1, to take input on establishing the township superintendent position.

Grayling Charter Township Supervisor Terry Wright is scheduled to retire on Friday, Oct. 28 after holding the office for 15 years. Wright has one more year left on an unexpired term.

Under the proposal, the township would transition from having a full-time supervisor with all administrative duties assigned by the township board to serving as a part-time supervisor.

The township supervisor would handle all statutory delegated duties such as signing legal documents, financial documents and budgets, tax assessment roles and overseeing township board meetings.

The superintendent would handle day-to-day activities for the township and would serve as a board representative, personnel director, zoning administrator, ordinance enforcement officer, project manager and economic development director.

"I'm personally convinced that this is the plan to go with and maybe we can save the taxpayers some money," said Grayling Charter Township Board Trustee Dennis Long said.

Wright, who is currently being paid a $50,000 salary, serves as the township zoning administrator and is a certified tax assessor.

VICTORY BELL SET TO RING

It's been almost three years since Class of 2012 President Cam Wilson and then Vice-President Thomas Burrell pitched the idea for a victory bell at Ferguson Field. Above left, the 1071st Component Repair Company Allied Trades Section from MATES joined the crew doing final preparations for the victory bell dedication. The soldiers installed the bell in a permanent weld mount on the scoreboard and assisted with final prep for the bell itself. Above right, Burrell and Wilson are pictured with the Victory Bell, which will be dedicated after the Grayling High School's Varsity Football game on Thursday, Aug. 25.

Almanack

by Richard Milliman

Keep handy the scorecard of GOP candidates

A WISE MAN once likened being in politics to coaching football.

You have to be smart enough to understand the game, he said, and dumb enough to think it's important.

Those words and sentiments have been attributed to Eugene McCarthy, an erudite and independent thinking former senator from Minnesota who once tried to run for president as an independent.

They come to mind now because of the complexities of what's going on right now – and for the next year or so – in the Republican dilemma of selecting the party's nominee for president for the 2012 election.

In the spirit of openness, I mention that syndicated columnist George Will borrowed the same metaphor a week or so ago in discussing the Iowa Republican straw vote for president last week. It is universally apt.

MICHELE BACHMANN surprised no one, except maybe fellow Minnesotan Tim Pawlenty, when she waltzed to victory in the Iowa straw vote.

US Rep. Bachmann and ex-Gov.

Pawlenty, staked plenty on the meaningless Iowa poll, which is primarily a money raiser for the Iowa Republican Party.

Obviously they both couldn't win the popularity contest in a neighboring state, but each expected to make a strong showing.

Ms. Bachmann won the poll, and Mr. Pawlenty finished a weak third – so weak he immediately dropped out of the race for the GOP presidential nomination. He may wind up, as he did for the 2008 election, on the short list for vice president, no matter who eventually wins the GOP nomination, except Ms. Bachmann, because the US Constitution requires two different states represented on the final ballot.

Actually it was Texas Rep. Ron Paul who did in Mr. Pawlenty's hopes, when he finished a strong second in the Ames poll, only 152 votes behind Ms. Bachmann.

The final tally of those who campaigned for the straw vote went like this: Bachmann 4,823 votes. Mr. Paul 4,671 votes. Mr. Pawlenty 2,293. Rick Santorum 1,657. Herman Cain 1,456. Newt Gingrich 385. Thaddeus McCotter 35.

TWO CANDIDATES whose names were on the ballot but who did not actually "enter" the straw vote drew modest support. Mitt Romney had 567 votes (ahead of both Mr. Gingrich and Mr. McCotter) and Jon Huntsman received 68 votes (ahead of only Mr. McCotter).

Although Mr. Pawlenty threw in the towel, as yet none of the others who trailed did so.

Michigan's Thaddeus McCotter, who trailed every one else, is sticking around. He told The Detroit News "we are just getting started."

That the McCotter campaign has a long way to go was illustrated by the USA Today rundown about the straw vote and an emerging three-way Bachmann-Perry-Romney race. Its list of other candidates "also seeking the Republican presidential nomination," omitted Mr. McCotter completely.

Life is not easy for the final runner-up.

On the same day as the straw vote in Iowa, Texas Gov. Rick Perry, speaking to a rally in South Carolina called the RedState Gathering, announced he's running for president.

The GOP presidential field may not yet be complete, either. Drawing considerable attention while visiting the Iowa State Fair this week was Sarah Palin, who has not said she will run for the White House in 2012, but has not said she won't either.

WHAT DOES all this mean?

Probably most important is that Michele Bachmann must be considered a serious candidate for the White House. Winning the straw vote in August gives her the best chance to win at the Iowa caucuses, now scheduled for Feb. 5, 2012, when actual delegates are selected to select the party's actual nominee.

That route is not ironclad, however. Four years ago, Mitt Romney won the Iowa straw vote, but Mike Huckabee carried the Iowa caucuses.

Iowa is important nationally because it is one of only four states permitted under national Republican Party rules to pick delegates before any other state gets a voice in the process. New Hampshire, South Carolina and Nevada are the other three.

Several national pundits are calling the Republican campaign as a three-way race among Ms. Bachmann, Mr. Perry and Mr. Romney, which to me seems a bit premature.

The Bachmann and Perry campaigns both appeal to the same strong party base, the so-called Tea Party conservatives – no-tax, cut-spending, anti-government, faith-based partisans.

Most of the other Republican hopefuls are trying to plow the same ground, and if Ms. Palin should jump into the picture, she certainly would further splinter this element.

The next big multi-candidate event is a September 7 debate in Simi Valley, California.

In the next month, the GOP field could be either smaller or larger, but it's still a long, long way to go before final decisions will be made.

Remember the words of wisdom from Eugene McCarthy, and don't take the whole thing seriously ... yet.

Over the Limit. Under Arrest.

Notice to drunk drivers: Extra patrols are on the road

Drunk drivers beware – if you are over the limit, you will be under arrest. Beginning Aug. 19, Crawford County Sheriff's Office will step up enforcement and be on the lookout for impaired drivers during the end-of-summer drunk driving crackdown.

Extra patrols in Crawford County are part of the national drunk driving Over the Limit. Under Arrest. crackdown and will continue through Labor Day until Sept. 5.

Law enforcement will spend the next two weeks focusing on arresting drunk drivers to keep Michigan roadways safe, said Sheriff Kirk Wakefield. "The best thing to avoid an arrest and potential tragedy is to plan before you party by designating a sober driver, taking a cab or spending the night."

During the 2010 Labor Day period, 21 people died in crashes on Michigan's roadways. In the last five years an average of 14 people died in crashes during the same time period. In 2010, 10 of the fatalities involved alcohol, including five people who were killed in one crash. Three of the fatalities were motorcyclists and eight were not wearing a seat belt.

In Michigan, a motorist can be arrested for drunk driving with .08 blood alcohol content or higher. A drunk driving conviction is costly and comes with assorted penalties including fines, legal fees, driver responsibility fees, court costs and higher insurance rates.

Motorists arrested for drunk driving with a .17 blood alcohol content face increased penalties including the possible installation of an ignition interlock device preventing the car from starting if the driver has been drinking.

In 2010, 357 people died in Michigan as a result of alcohol and/or drug involved traffic crashes, a 1.7 percent increase from 2009.

FEMA issues floodplain maps for Crawford County

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has issued preliminary flood insurance rate maps (FIRMs) for Crawford County. Previously, FIRMs did not exist for Crawford County. The purpose of the FIRMs is to show what properties have a greater than 1.0% chance of flooding in the event of a 100 year flood. We believe these maps have included every parcel that would be impacted if a body of water (lake, river, stream, etc.) were to raise ten feet from its current level.

How will this impact you? If you own a home that has been designated to exist in a floodplain and you have a mortgage on the home, your mortgage company can require you to have flood insurance.

If your local unit of government participated in the FEMA program you may purchase your insurance through FEMA.

According to FEMA and depending on the risk area your property is in, your rates could range from $100.00 a year to over $3,000.00 a year. If your local unit does not participate in the FEMA program, you can expect to pay more for your insurance. If you refuse to purchase the insurance, your mortgage company may purchase it for you and adjust your mortgage payment accordingly. If you do not have a mortgage on your property, you will not be required to have flood insurance; however, if you are selling your property to someone that will have a mortgage, the buyer will be required to purchase flood insurance.

The local units of government have been told that we do not have an option to appeal the FIRMs because we have no base flood elevations to work from and the public comment period has ended. Individual property owners do have some options under FEMA to appeal or challenge the floodplain designation. However, even if the challenge is successful, the mortgage company may still require flood insurance on your property. These designations will become effective on April 17, 2012.

The county would like to encourage you to contact your township/city to verify if you own a parcel in a FEMA designated floodplain. You will also want to know if your township participates in the FEMA flood insurance program. If you are in a designated floodplain and you believe that information to be inaccurate, you are encouraged to contact the FEMA regional office Federal Emergency Management Agency, 536 South Clark St., 6th Floor, Chicago, IL 60605, 312-408-5500 <http://www.fema.gov/about/econtact/regions.shtm>.

Letters to the Editor

Shout out for a good deed

To the editor:

Just have to give a couple shout outs for some special people that took time to do something good over the busy marathon weekend.

I manage the Fish Hatchery and we had to perform a fledgling blue heron rescue. The poor thing tangled with some fish line and got himself hung up in the willow tree that hangs out over our children's pond. He was hanging from one wing and trying to wiggle himself loose... naturally, we couldn't let him suffer anymore. But we needed some sort of boat to get out there and cut him loose.

I called Penrod's and explained the situation. Before I could even ask, they asked what I needed. I had a kayak delivered to the hatchery by Tim Zigila within 10 minutes. Nice. One of our employees, Caitlin Prosser, paddled out with my Stanley knife and cut him free.

Happy to report that the heron hung out in the pond for a few days to heal his wing and is doing fine.

P.S. By the way, our downtown area is beautiful this year. Nice work out front Ernie.

The Bible Speaks

Christian Accord in Liberty

In Romans chapter 14 and part of 15 God goes into detail about how Christians should be in accord with each other over differences of opinion regarding non-essential matters within local churches. He is not talking about any differences over doctrine which is clearly taught in the Bible, but rather about matters not taught within the Bible. Romans 14:1 states the overall principle to be expounded: "Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations." The preceding context here is how we are to avoid "strife and envying" as stated in Romans 13:13, and what it means in Romans 13:14: "14But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof." How to fulfill these two verses will be covered in detail by chapters 14 and 15.

First, recognize weakness in other believers - "Him that is weak in the faith..."

Bible truth increases liberty and freedom making a Christian strong or mature. (John 8:32). Ignorance increases superstition, doubts, fears, and uncertainties making a Christian weak. People are born with certain weaknesses which may continue after salvation. For example, low intelligence, weakness of the will of the flesh, (Romans 8:3), different temperaments such as those who worry all the time over small details, and those who have no desire to increase knowledge in either the flesh or the spirit. Another reason could be the short time one has been a Christian. We all start out as babies in both the flesh and spirit. Some people grow up more slowly in both the flesh and spirit.

Second, receive weak believers - "...receive ye..." Receive the weak Christian as a brother or sister of equal standing in Jesus Christ. We all stand equal at the foot of the Cross. We are to receive and accept the weak Christian as God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit have already received him or her. "3Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him." (Romans 14:3). "7Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:7). As Paul said in 2 Corinthians 11:29: "29Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?" Read in the book of Philemon how Paul placed the former runaway slave Onesimus as equal to himself because he had since become a Christian.

Third, respect weak believers - "...but not to doubtful disputations." Give God's word and the Holy Spirit time to work in the life of each believer. Don't be trying to impose your personal opinions and preferences upon them. Don't badger and bother them over little things all the time until they are offended by your very presence. Treat them the way you would want to be treated. We should "support the weak" (Acts 20:35). We should do nothing "whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak." (Romans 14:21). "12But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ." (1 Corinthians 8:12). Jesus warned in Matthew 18:6: "6But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea." As Heaven rejoices over new Christians, so should we! Pastor "B"

Maurice Birdsall was portrayed by Marshall Roe Jr. Birdsall was born in 1826 in the State of New York. By 1860, he was living in Fenton with his wife Mary and two children. Birdsall enlisted in the Union Army on Aug. 8, 1861 as a private in Company F, 7th Regiment Infantry. The unit saw action at Ball's Bluff on Oct. 21, 1861 and Oct. 22 near Edward's Ferry. On Dec. 4, the unit was moved to Muddy Branch. Birdsall was mustered out on Dec. 12, 1861 with a disability discharged. After living in Fenton, Birdsall settled in the Grayling area in 1881 to work the land. He was found dead at the age of 65 on the East Branch of the AuSable River near his home in Maple Forest Township. Suspicious foul play is considered have been a factor in his death.

Thomas Ke Chittago. Chittago was portrayed by Waters Native American Jim Giessel. Chittago, a Native American, was born on May 3, 1836 near Zilwaukee. He was orphaned as a small child and survived by hunting, fishing and trapping. In 1863, Company K of the First Michigan Sharpshooters was formed, comprised entirely of Michigan Native Americans. Chittago enlisted on May 26, 1863. The First Michigan Sharpshooters were assigned to Gen. Ulysses S. Grant's Army of the Potomac and served the Union cause with bravery and distinction. Company K saw action at the Battle of Wilderness and fought bravely at Spotsylvania Court House, Cold Harbor, The Battle of the Crater, Ream's Station, Peebles Farm and Hatcher's Run. Chittago was mustered out in Washington D.C. after his distinguished service with an honorable discharge. After the war, Chittago returned and eventually came to the Grayling area, where he applied for his pension. He earned a living in the logging industry. Chittago died on April 24, 1916 at Mercy Hospital Grayling.

Giessel was honored to portray Chittago.

"These guys taught the Union how to do it the way Natives fought," Giessel said. "They went through some horrendous battles."

Charles Eickhoff was portrayed by Maple Forest Township Supervisor Mark Kniss. Eickhoff was born in Germany on Feb. 13, 1838. He came to America in 1851 with his parents and settled in New York. On Aug. 25, 1862, he enlisted in A Company, 169th Regiment, New York Volunteer Infantry. Eickhoff served a total of three years and three months. During the Third Battle of Winchester, which was fought during the Valley Campaigns, Confederate Lt. Gen. Jubal A. Early was pitted against Union Maj. Gen. Philip Sheridan, who was trying to cross Opequon Creek. The main assault continued for several hours and casualties were heavy. The Confederate line was gradually driven back toward the town. Because of its size, intensity and result, it is considered to be the most important conflicts of Shenandoah Valley. Eickhoff was seriously wounded in the battle, and after medical treatment, he was mustered out on Nov. 1, 1865. Eickhoff returned to Arcadia, to be with his family. They came to Michigan in 1882 and were living in Grayling in 1900, according to U.S. Census records. In 1903, the family moved to Flint and lived there for the next two decades. Eickhoff, 82, died in Flint on Sept. 14, 1920 from heart disease. He was laid to rest in the Elmwood Cemetery beside his son, Winfield.

ancestry, genealogy and his great grandfather, Joseph Kniss, fought in the Civil War and is buried in Missouri.

"I'm not a history buff, but I do spend some time online looking at different things," Kniss said.

Henry Mansir was portrayed by Fred Fisher. Mansir was born in 1833 in Massachusetts. He enlisted in the Company D, 49th Regiment, Massachusetts Infantry on Aug. 19, 1862. On Jan. 24, 1863, they embarked for New Orleans on the Steamer Illinois. As unit prepared to move to Baton Rouge to join up with the 1st Brigade, 1st Division, 19th Army Corps, Department of the Gulf, they saw their first action at Plain's Store. The siege and assault resulted in the surrender of Port Hudson on July 9. The regiment then moved to Donaldsonville in July and saw action at Cox's Plantation. They then moved to Baton Rouge on Aug. 1, and were later sent home and mustered out on Sept. 1, 1863. Mansir, 60, died of intestinal indigestion and colon problems on March 10, 1899 and was buried in the Elmwood Cemetery. He was a practicing oculist, a person who specializes in eye diseases, in the Grayling area.

Delivan Smith was portrayed by Grayling Mayor Karl Schreiner. Smith was born in Onondaga, New York on Dec. 6, 1844. By 1860, he and his family were living in White Pigeon, where he farmed. Smith enlisted in Company H, 17th Regiment Michigan Infantry. Smith was captured and held as a prisoner of war at the infamous Andersonville Prison Camp from May 12, 1864 to April 1, 1865. He was one of 100 men in his company to survive the Battle of Spotsylvania was one of 10 in the company to survive the prison. The 10 survivors were swapped in a prisoner exchange and placed on the Steamer Sultana, which was blown up shortly afterwards, killing over 1,600 men. Smith regained consciousness as the steamer was sinking and swam for his life. He was rescued five miles down stream, returned to Memphis and placed in a military hospital. Smith was mustered out of service in Jackson, on July 20, 1865. Smith and his family were living in 1880 in Kalkaska, where he was a farmer, according to U.S. Census records. By 1900, the family moved to Grayling Township. Smith, 70, died on Jan. 27, 1916, due to complications from influenza and heart disease.

Daniel L. Whipple was portrayed by John Binkley. Whipple was born on Oct. 22, 1822. He was working as a farmer and living near Cincinnati when the Civil War started. On March 11, 1864, Whipple enlisted in the 10th Independent Sharpshooters as a wagoner and was attached to the 60th Infantry, Company H. The company was assigned to the 2nd Brigade, 3rd Division of the 9th Army Corps commanded by Gen. Ambrose Burnside. They took part in several engagements in Virginia, including the siege of Petersburg, and actions around Richmond. Whipple received a surgeon's certificate of disability discharge on Oct. 20, 1864 at Fort Schuyler, New York Harbor. In June 1894, Whipple appeared in the Crawford County, Ball Township census of Michigan Civil War Veterans. Whipple, 75, died on May 30, 1898 due to several issues related to aging.

William L. Woodburn was portrayed by Dr. Mark Davey. Woodburn was born on Jan. 9, 1831 in Vermont. According to the 1860 Census, Woodburn and his family were living in Novi and he was working as a farmer. He enlisted in the Company D, 5th Michigan Cavalry Regiment on Aug. 20, 1862. The regiment served in the defense of the nation's capital, and then joined the Cavalry Corps of the Army of the Potomac. The Cavalry took part in several major battles, including the Battle of Hanover, the Battle of Gettysburg and the Battle of Williamsport. They then participated in a series of small engagements. Woodburn was captured at the Battles of James City. The battle had Gen. J.E.B. Stuart and his Confederate horsemen fighting against Union troops under Gen. Judson Kilpatrick. The Confederate sharpshooters cut the Union Cavalry to pieces. The Union troops withdrew during the night, which ended the battle. Woodburn, along with several comrades, were taken to the Libby Prison, and later transferred to the Andersonville Prison, where they suffered from hunger, disease and exposure. He was paroled from Andersonville in March 1865 after one year and five months. After medical treatment, Woodburn was honorably discharged on June 12, 1865. In 1890, Woodburn and his family moved to South Branch Township, where he farmed. He applied for an invalid pension on July 18, 1890. Woodburn was living in Grayling Township, according to the 1894 Michigan Census of Civil War soldiers. Woodburn, 80, died on Feb. 12, 1911 due to chronic cystitis and diarrhea.

Lyons said the Crawford County Historical Society will continue to highlight other Civil War veterans in future Cemetery Walks.

"Several people have said they hoped we will do something again with the Civil War because it was so interesting and all the interpreters were so well informed," Lyons said.

The Crawford County Historical Society is currently raising funds to remove the lead paint from Crawford County Museum, replace rotted and weathered wood and paint the building.

"We have a very long way to go because this is extremely expensive," Lyons said. "We're depending on generosity from the people and we're hoping that events like the Cemetery Walk will stir some interest so people will come down and see this jewel that we have in Crawford County."

A former Grayling resident officially launched his new fishing apparel business - WORMGUTS, an Internet-based company - with a gathering at Hanson Hills Recreation Area on Saturday.

Eli Tobin, a 2000 Grayling High School graduate, grew up in Grayling but he now lives in Farwell. Friends and family showed up Saturday to help celebrate the venture's official launch.

"It's going well so far as far as support," Tobin said.

After college, Tobin worked as a pharmaceutical sales representative for five years. He said after being laid off for a second time he decided to start his own business. A lifetime angler, he opted for a fishing apparel company after doing extensive market research.

"I decided I'm going to give this a shot. It will either work or not," he said.

Tobin said the recreational fishing market generates billions per year but there isn't one "dominant brand ... company that fishermen can be loyal to."

He said the market research phase lasted for about two years. Tobin read magazines, online material, surveys, "whatever I could find," he said. "I wanted to make sure there was a demand for the product before I launched it. Through a lot of market research I discovered there was."

Currently, WORMGUTS offers T-shirts, hooded sweatshirts, gear made of moisture wicking fabric, hats, long-sleeve T-shirts, stickers, and more on its website: www.wormguts.net.

"As we grow as a company we'll offer more," he said.

Tobin said he is hoping to start in northern Michigan, expand throughout the state, and grow from there.

"What better place to start than in your own backyard?" Tobin said. "I love Grayling. I love the tight-knit community."

"Grayling is very good about backing what you do," Tobin said, citing the hundreds of people that supported local high school sports throughout his playing career at GHS.

"The game plan for next year is to hit fishing expos across the state of Michigan, events where camaraderie is high," Tobin said.

"The plan is to attract the Michigan audience and expand from there. Michigan has more registered boats than any other state, so Michigan is the perfect place to start," he said.

Building ownership allows Grayling B.C. Pizza to move

by Dan Sanderson
Staff Writer

A fixture in Grayling for just over a half dozen years, B.C. Pizza has sliced its way across the road to a more visible location.

B.C. Pizza in Grayling recently moved from its location a 306 S. James Street to 307 S. James St. next to Dairy Queen.

Dave Serven, the owner of the Grayling B.C. Pizza franchise, said the opportunity to own a building rather than lease space at its former location, located between Feeny Ford of Grayling and Speedway, provided a better outlook for the long-term of the business.

"It was a better opportunity," Serven said. "I leased over there and I purchased this building."

The restaurant's new location was formerly used by Little Caesars and Hungry Howie's, and has been vacant for several years.

So far, Serven said the move has been positive since the new location provides easier access, more parking and a better atmosphere.

"We've had a lot of positive numbers so we've been doing well," Serven said. "Customers have given us great comments on how the restaurant is more bright and cheerful."

The Grayling B.C. Pizza continues its focus on its pizza buffet.

The menu is still the same and the delivery is available.

"In every B.C. Pizza, we have the same exact menu, the same exact prices and everything is the same across the board," Serven said.

Serven said more upgrades are coming, including wall tiles featuring B.C. Pizza's mascot Officer Pizzarelli.

"New additions are ongoing," Serven said.

B.C. Pizza in Grayling employees between five to 15 people, depending on the time of year, Serven said.

Boyne City brothers Chris and Wayne Nelson founded B.C. Pizza. The company marked its 20th anniversary in 2010. B.C. Pizza has 32 restaurants in Michigan, Georgia and Florida.

Summer reading program attendees wheel home new bikes

CASD schools make the grade again with state benchmarks

The State of Michigan's grades for every school in the state were recently published and Crawford AuSable School District MEAP schools accomplish a mark of an "A" once again.

The AuSable Primary School, Grayling Elementary School and Grayling Middle School all received "best in the class" grades of "A."

The U.S. Department of Education also rates every school in the country with their measure of Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP). A high performing school makes AYP. All of CASD schools once again achieved AYP.

The students of Grayling High School also displayed high academic performance this year. High school students take the nationwide ACT test, which is required for entrance to college. The State of Michigan's average is 19.3 on a 36-point scale. GHS students scored an average 20.1.

"We are very excited about such a strong performance by our high school students," said Crawford AuSable School District Superintendent Joe Powers.

"Not only did they exceed the state with the ACT scores, they also exceeded the state average for college readiness. Our students are on the path to success."

For all Crawford AuSable School District schools, the 2010-11 school year was another successful year.

"For the fifth year in a row, we have had greater performance than the previous year," Powers said.

For the first time, AuSable Primary School, Grayling Elementary School and Grayling Middle Schools beat the State of Michigan in every single testing area that covers 18 subject tests from grade third through ninth.

"I am so proud of our students, parents and staff for being so committed to education," Powers said. "We not only beat the State in each and every area, we beat the average by over seven percentage points."

The achievement for the school district is the best to date, but school officials will strive to do better in the 2011-12 school year.

"Our students' performance is proof that our students are using their individual academic goals to achieve success," Powers said. "I am happy to say that the Crawford AuSable Schools are schools our communities can be proud of because our students are excelling."

Township board pondering changing leadership roles

Once Wright retires, the township will not have a tax assessor.

Bob Dixon, the township's building and zoning official, is currently being paid a $40,000 salary. He volunteered to take on the superintendent position for a year along with keeping his current duties.

"I will give it a 100 percent effort," Dixon said. "If it doesn't work out, I will go back to being the building official."

Jeddy Hood, who operates the Flying Fish Lodge in Grayling Charter Township, said she would serve out Wright's unexpired term to give township leaders more time to study future leadership. Hood served eight years as the West Bloomfield Township supervisor in Oakland County.

"The idea of creating two positions and a two-tier government just doesn't make sense," Hood said. "I feel the electorate has a voice and that they should have a say."

Long, Trustee Duane Brooks and Trustee Bruce Zalobsky are in favor of the creating the township superintendent position since that person would be accountable to the board.

Long said the township exposes itself to loss of efficiency in day-to-day operations each time the township has to make a transition with a new supervisor.

"Every four years, the election is a popularity contest and not always does the best person get elected," Long said.

Clerk Monica Ashton and Treasurer Cindy Olson were reluctant to move forward with changing the position until a public hearing is held.

"You sound like you don't trust the judgment of the electorate," Ashton said. "If you get somebody in there that they don't like, they'll figure out a way to get them out of there."

"Each time you bring in another personality, you shake the bucket more," Olson added.

Township Trustee Shawn Krayes is currently on his way home after serving a year-long Michigan National Guard deployment in Kuwait. He is expected to back in town soon.

Current budget conditions has resulted in the township not filling a zoning enforcement officer position, a tax assessor position and a secretary position.

"When times were good, we were all hopping and had things to do," Wright said.

Long said dealing with the creation of the superintendent position will be a work in progress. The board hopes that if the ordinance is approved, they can advertise and get someone in place to work with Wright for a few weeks before he retires.

"It's a staff position that we're going to have to wrestle with what responsibilities they have to do," Long said.

2011 Michigan Old 27 Motor Tour rolling into Grayling

A rolling celebration of Michigan's Old U.S. 27 Highway will take place next week, with an estimated 150 to 200 cars from the 1950's and 1960's stopping in Grayling on Friday.

The 2011 Michigan Old U.S. 27 Motor Tour will take place from Aug. 23 through Aug. 28. The tour will be in Grayling at 4 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 26, for an overnight stop.

Owners of the classic cars and trucks will have traveled on the Old U.S. 27 route from Coldwater, stopping along the way in Lansing, St. Johns, Ithaca, St. Louis, Clare and Harrison. The final stop for the car tour will take place in Cheboygan.

Before construction of the interstate highway system, drivers traveled north and south on Old U.S. 27. Two lanes of highway were traveled from town to town from the Michigan/Indiana border to the Straits of Mackinaw. There were no exits and the highway passed through the downtown business districts of each community.

These were not car trips in that day as much as they were adventures, which were measured in days instead of hours.

The cars will be arriving mid-afternoon on Friday, and will be on display for several hours in downtown Grayling.

"Tour participants really appreciate Grayling closing down part of the downtown area and is many words rolling out the red carpet," said Pete Kocefas, a business owner and volunteer who helped schedule the local stop for the motor tour.

The Just for Kicks cloggers will present a foot stomping good time at 5 p.m. for downtown visitors. A street dance will be held from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Sandra Moore, a local volunteer for the motor tour, encouraged people to come downtown to meet the classic car owners, view their automobiles and give them a warm Grayling welcome.

"We are anticipating a larger crowd than last year with many cars bringing two or three passengers so we could easily see 300 to 400 visitors," Moore said.

More information about the Old U.S. 27 Car Tour can be found at www.old27tour.com.

"We looking forward having another good time again up there this year," said Craig Parrish, the founder of the Michigan Old U.S. 27 Motor Tour.

Cyclists urged to participate

Crawford County area cyclists are encouraged to take part in a bike-a-thon, which is traveling through northern Michigan, aimed at putting food on the table for children in a third-world country.

Last year, Bart Thompson, of Ann Arbor, organized a bicycling fund-raising campaign and collected nearly $20,000 to go toward International Samaritan's school rebuilding efforts in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. Thompson and several other volunteers cycled from Ann Arbor to Harbor Springs, a total of 335 miles.

Thompson was inspired to raise funds for International Samaritan's after volunteering on an International Samaritan's service trip in Guatemala City in 2007. He is a graduate of St. John's Jesuit High School and is a premed student at Stanford University.

This year, Thompson's bicycling fund-raiser is called Biking for Bowls. The bike-a-thon begins on Friday, Aug. 19 and runs through Sunday, Aug. 21.

All funds will go toward International Samaritan's food program in the garbage dump community of Ocotillo, Honduras.

The bicyclists will be camping overnight in Higgins Lake. Bicyclists from Crawford County are invited to participate in part or the entire ride.

Biking for Bowls riders are asked to raise a minimum of $100, which will pay for one child's school lunch for an entire year.

International Samaritan's mission is to alleviate the poverty in impoverished communities across the globe and raise consciousness about the living conditions of the poor in the developing world.

International Samaritan's builds homes, schools, nurseries, medical facilities, community centers, adult training schools and administers food and micro-loan programs. International Samaritan's also organizes service learning trips and medical brigades for volunteers.

To participate in the Bike-a-Thon, e-mail bartt12@stanford.edu. Participants may ride as many miles as they wish.

To donate to Biking for Bowls, call (734) 222-0701 or visit International Samaritan's website at www.intsamaritan.org.

Crawford County area cyclists are encouraged to take part in a bike-a-thon, which is traveling through northern Michigan, aimed at putting food on the table for children in a third-world country. Above, the Biking for Bowls proceeds will pay for school food program for children in Ocotillo, Honduras.

Long's Hearing Care Systems

The Straight Scoop: Digital Hearing Aids Can Significantly Improve Your Quality of Life

The Surgeon General recommends everyone over the age of fifty have their hearing checked at least once a year.

Hearing loss makes life increasingly difficult to interact with friends and loved ones and not just for the person with the loss but many times even more frustrating for the people that are trying to communicate with you. They have to repeat themselves, raise their voices, or take the time to get in front of the hard of hearing person so they can read lips. Yes it's stressful on all concerned.

Vanity and denial - are these the reasons you're not helping yourself hear better? Think of your loved ones and friends. Is it fair to them or you?

If the brain has difficulty understanding speech or you get words confused, please come in and get your hearing checked. The longer you wait, the more time you will spend not understanding their message. Help the folks you communicate with by helping yourself with hearing treatments that can significantly improve the quality of life.

It is estimated that partial hearing loss strikes one out of three adults over the age of fifty. A hearing loss usually comes on so gradually, most people are not aware of it happening. It is silent and painless, gradually stealing away your ability to hear the soft sounds of speech clearly. Early detection and correction are essential in avoiding speech deprivation now and in later years.

Michael Long has served this community in hearing health care since 1986, providing the highest professional standards in dispensing premium hearing systems and services. His utmost concern is making people hear and seeing them smile.

It's not just your hearing that's affected when you don't hear well, but your whole way of life. Hearing helps people and families to get close again - puts happiness back in their marriages - lifts people up from depression - recreates friendships - gets people out of their homes and back into the flow of living - makes people feel younger, which improves their outlook, which improves their health and most importantly, no more embarrassment!

You'll be surprised to learn that digital hearing aids are very affordable today and are available in a variety of styles and sizes.

Digital hearing aids provide effective solutions to complaints commonly associated with analog products: feedback, background noise and low-fidelity sound processing.

Because each individual is unique, an algorithm is developed to accurately correct each patient's hearing loss. The algorithm is then programmed into the chip so their hearing aids know how to maximize hearing acuity in a variety of listening environments.

The state-of-the-art digital hearing aid is the newest generation of smart digital hearing aids and is a quantum leap forward in digital hearing aid performance.

"The newest Digital is by far and away the best hearing aid we've ever fit. Patients are amazed at the significant improvement in the clarity and comfort digital sound."

Because each individual is unique, the algorithm can be programmed to accurately correct the patient's hearing loss. The algorithm can be programmed into the chip so the hearing aid knows how to maximize hearing acuity in a variety of listening environments.

The newest digital chip performs millions of calculations per second based on the algorithm's hearing correction code. The Advanced Digital Algorithm provides:

- Automatic Feedback Suppression
- Adaptive Noise Management
- Digital Directional Technology
- High Fidelity Digital Sound
- Extended Battery Life

"Patient satisfaction is directly related to the hearing professional's expertise. Hearing Professionals can more accurately evaluate, correct and program the hearing aids to the unique needs and lifestyles of the patient. Comprehensive evaluation techniques, specialized fitting and programming flexibility and post fitting care will ensure your complete satisfaction."

If you or a loved one suspect an untreated hearing loss, you should contact your local hearing professional.

Come in - don't put this off any longer! Hear your loved ones and the sounds of the world! We are rendering this special care with dignity and devotion to client and community.

Fall sports teams to start seasons soon

Practices for football, volleyball, soccer, golf began last week

by Caleb Casey
Senior Staff Writer

They started practicing last week and some of them will play games as early as this week. The high school fall sports season – a campaign that includes football, volleyball, soccer (boys), and golf (girls) – is here.

The football program started its official practices on Monday, Aug. 8 – approximately one month before the 2011-2012 school year begins. The program practiced without pads on Aug. 8-10 before suiting up in full gear last Thursday. The program did plenty of work over the summer, including weight lifting, 7 on 7 offense vs. defense competitions, a spread offense camp in July, and a BAHUNA camp (conditioning at a variety of times, day and night).

The program's coaching roster is mostly the same as last year: Tim Sanchez, varsity head coach; Kevin O'Connell, varsity assistant; Eric Tunney, varsity assistant; Jason Moyer, varsity assistant; Chris Kucharek, junior varsity head coach; Ron Wyman, junior varsity assistant; John Junttila, junior varsity assistant.

"We're excited," Coach Sanchez said last Thursday. "Yesterday we had two really good practices. We're looking for that to carry over to the first day of pads today."

New athletic director takes over at GHS

Eric Tunney, football coach and phys ed teacher, is new AD

by Caleb Casey
Senior Staff Writer

Eric Tunney, physical education teacher and assistant football coach at Grayling High School, is the Crawford AuSable School District's new athletic director.

"I'm pumped," Tunney said. "We've got some good sports teams, great coaches. I'm hoping to have a successful year."

Tunney, who's in his third year with the school district, takes over for Tim Sanchez, who served for four years as athletic director. Sanchez, the head football coach at GHS, is now the assistant principal for the high school.

Tunney worked with Sanchez during the 2011 spring sports season, learning some of the athletic director's responsibilities. He said Sanchez has also helped him this fall while adjusting to the new role.

"Tim's been helping an enormous amount," Tunney said.

Tunney is a Central Michigan University graduate who played football (offensive line) for the Chippewas, including two seasons in which the squad won the Mid-American Conference. His wife, Britt, teaches kindergarten and first grade in Grayling; she also coaches middle school basketball and high school volleyball for the Crawford AuSable School District.

Tunney said he's been busy recently with scheduling, taking care of contract paperwork for each game, and purchasing supplies.

"Most of the schedule for fall was already done. I'm just kind of filling in the holes," he said.

Tunney said it's gone well so far and he's been "very busy."

"It's been going great," Tunney said. "All of the other (athletic directors) have been phenomenal."

Football Preview

The Grayling Vikings put in the work over the summer, they started their official practices last week, and they'll get their first test in game action next week.

"We're excited," said Tim Sanchez, head coach of the Grayling High School varsity football team. "We have 25 guys on varsity, including four sophomores that we brought up. The guys we're returning from last year are looking good."

Coach Sanchez said the varsity team's strengths include "receiver depth" and experience at the skill positions (quarterback, running back, receiver).

Tyler McClanahan reaches for a pass during the first official football practice last Monday.

Last year's team finished at 8-3, 7-2 during the regular season, with one playoff win and one playoff loss. Coach Sanchez said this year's team is looking to compete for a league title and get back into the playoffs.

"Our goal, once again, is to win every game. We want to win a league championship," Coach Sanchez said. "We want to get in the playoffs and once we get there do some damage."

The Vikings will open their 2011 season with two non-conference Thursday night games. Grayling will host Roscommon at 7 p.m. on Aug. 25. The Vikings will play at Houghton Lake on Sept. 1 at 7 p.m.

Grayling's first LMC match – a home game vs. Boyne City – is slated for Friday, Sept. 9, at 7 p.m. PAGES 2-3B

Strengths to include 'receiver depth,' skill position returners

Varsity football team to host Roscommon on Thursday, Aug. 25

by Caleb Casey

Senior Staff Writer

It's football season.

The Grayling Vikings put in the work over the summer, they started their official practices last week, and they'll get their first test in game action next week.

"We're excited," said Tim Sanchez, head coach of the Grayling High School varsity football team. "We have 25 guys on varsity, including four sophomores that we brought up. The guys we're returning from last year are looking good."

The coaching roster for the football program is mostly the same as last year: Sanchez, varsity head coach (and offensive coordinator); Kevin O'Connell, varsity assistant (defensive coordinator); Eric Tunney, varsity assistant (offensive line and defensive line coach); Jason Moyer, varsity assistant (linebackers coach); Chris Kucharek, junior varsity head coach (and defensive coordinator); Ron Wytian, junior varsity assistant (offensive coordinator); John Junttila, junior varsity assistant (receivers and defensive backs coach).

Coach Sanchez said the varsity team's strengths include "receiver depth" and experience at the skill positions (quarterback, running back, receiver).

"We have a lot of receivers," Sanchez said. "We have a lot of returning skill kids, which is nice. They pretty much have it all down."

The team is working on its offensive and defensive lines after losing key members of both units to graduation.

"We lost some key guys last year. We're trying to fill those spots now," Coach Sanchez said. "We had to replace three offensive linemen and three defensive linemen. We need to get them experience in a short amount of time so they can learn the plays. It's just a matter of them learning the system. We need to get better to be where we want to be."

The team started its official practices on Monday, Aug. 8. The squad practiced without pads during the first three days; they suited up in full gear starting on Thursday. Coach Sanchez, on Thursday, said the first two days of practice yielded mixed results.

"Our first practice the first half of the day wasn't good. The second half was great," he said.

On Tuesday it was the opposite, with a good first session and a not-so-good second session, Sanchez said. Wednesday, however, yielded better results.

"Yesterday we had two really good practices," Coach Sanchez said on Thursday. "We're looking for that to carry over to the first day of pads today."

Coach Sanchez said the team got a lot accomplished during the offseason. The Vikings went to seven different 7 on 7 offense vs. defense events, lifted weights Monday through Thursday all summer "except for the one 'dead week' that everyone has to take off," hosted a spread camp in July, and had its annual BAHUNA camp two weeks ago, Coach Sanchez said.

BAHUNA camp, an event Sanchez described as a test of mental and physical toughness, involved a variety of conditioning drills during morning hours, daytime, and nighttime. (BAHUNA stands for Block And Hit Until None Arise.)

The spread camp helped participants learn the spread offense and gave them an opportunity to "get out there, throw and catch, work on those fundamentals," Coach Sanchez said.

He said the 7 on 7 events allow players to learn the team's offense and defense.

"A new player can learn the offense with just that," Coach Sanchez said.

Last year's team finished at 8-3, 7-2 during the regular season, with one playoff win and one playoff loss. Coach Sanchez said this year's team is looking to compete for a league title and get back into the playoffs.

"Our goal, once again, is to win every game. We want to win a league championship," Coach Sanchez said.

said. "We want to get in the playoffs and once we get there do some damage."

Three teams from the Lake Michigan Conference - Grayling, Elk Rapids, and Traverse City St. Francis - qualified for the playoffs last year.

"St. Francis is going to be good again. They're always tough. They always reload. Elk Rapids is always tough as well, a well coached team. Those are the two we're gunning for the most. Those are definitely two games we've got circled," Coach Sanchez said.

The Vikings will open their 2011 season with two non-conference Thursday night games. Grayling will host Roscommon at 7 p.m. on Aug. 25. The Vikings will play at Houghton Lake on Sept. 1 at 7 p.m.

Grayling's first LMC match - a home game vs. Boyne City - is slated for Friday, Sept. 9, at 7 p.m.

Fall sports teams to start seasons soon

The varsity football team will open its 2011 season with a home game vs. Roscommon, a non-conference rival, at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Aug. 25. The team's second game is also slated for a Thursday night; the Vikings will play at Houghton Lake, another non-conference matchup, at 7 p.m. on Sept. 1. After the school year starts on Sept. 6 all varsity games are scheduled for Friday nights. The squad's first Lake Michigan Conference game will be played at GHS vs. Boyne City on Friday, Sept. 9.

The JV football team will play its season opener at Roscommon on Wednesday, Aug. 24, at 6:30 p.m. The JV Vikings will host Houghton Lake on Wednesday, Aug. 31, at 6 p.m.

Jessica Szymoniak returns as head coach of the GHS volleyball program; she's been the varsity coach since 2007, the year in which high school volleyball in Michigan switched from the winter season to the fall season due to a court ruling against the MHSAA in a gender equity lawsuit. Britt Tunney is the new junior varsity volleyball coach for GHS.

The varsity team's first scheduled game action is the Roscommon tournament on Aug. 19. The squad has a sizeable gap until its next slated meet — a conference series vs. Harbor Springs set for 6 p.m. on Sept. 13 at GHS.

The JV volleyball team has tournaments scheduled for Aug. 26 (at Roscommon) and Aug. 27 (at Boyne City). The JV team will also play against Harbor Springs during the meet slated for Sept. 13 at GHS.

Eric Tunney, new athletic director at Grayling High School, said the volleyball program "had a pretty good turnout" with regard to overall numbers.

The GHS boys soccer team has a new coach — Nate Alyas — and a new venue; the Vikings will not play their home games at Grayling High School this year.

The soccer team will play its home games at the Crawford AuSable Soccer Association field located at the Crawford County Fairgrounds, not far from GHS.

E. Tunney said the change will allow for "a bigger field rather than trying to cram it into the football field. They have a real soccer field. We're going to try it out this year and see how it goes."

He said the field does not have a scoreboard yet but one should be installed at some point during the season. Admission prices and procedures — the school plans to have a representative checking passes and selling tickets at the gate, Tunney said — are not expected to be significantly different than if the games were played at Viking Stadium.

The soccer squad will host Ogemaw Heights at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 23.

The girls golf program — another sport that changed seasons in 2007 (spring to fall) — will be coached by Scott Baker again this year.

The golf team will play at Cheboygan on Wednesday, Aug. 17. The Vikings will host the Grayling Invitational at 9 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 22, at the Grayling Country Club.

Wednesday Ladies League

Well folks, I was unable to play today, Aug. 11, but my worthy news source for weather was Sherry Hanson, who said, and I quote, "The weather was chilly, windy, sprinkly and then warm," but they all played and got their round in. This was a make-up day for the rain that cancelled our golf on June 22.

In flight A, Char Clark took it all with a low net of 32 and low putts of 13.

In Flight B, Kay Ellen King had a low net of 34 and Sherry Hanson had low putts of 16.

In Flight C, Shirley Young had a low net with 31 and Evie Kent had low putts of 16.

The longest putt for today was on #9 taken by Ann Latusek.

Sherry Hanson has a full slate of officers to run for our annual election that we will be voting on next week.

Then all enjoyed a spinach quiche with fresh fruit and cottage cheese or ordered off the menu.

Chairperson for President's Day, Mickey Perez, spoke of our lunch to be served on that day, Aug. 24 and also got volunteers for decorating and others to bring in desserts.

Hopefully I will be there next week for golf, and will be able to give more of a report.

That's all "fore" now.

Tuesday Ladies League
by Roxanne James

After a week of rest due to a rainout we all showed back up this morning at Grayling Country Club's Tuesday Morning Ladies Golf League. Even though it was on the cool side and looked like possible rain, it turned into a great day for golf. Bev McNamara showed up with a big smile, ready to play a round of golf with no fear of being beamed again. JoAnn Michal had a cute towel made up for Bev in memory of her experience of being hit by a wild slice from the #2 tee box to the upper head. The towel was red in color and had her name on it along with the date and in big letters said: Ouch.

We started the day with Carlene McMurtrie and JoAnn Michal in first place with Mickey Perez and Debbie Bonkoski holding second.

Katy McNamara chipped in on hole #2 and tied with Mickey Perez for low putts of 30. Roxanne James had birdies on holes #3 and #12 and taking four skins, with Sandy Kucharek winning two skins and Linda Marcereau winning one. When we got back to the clubhouse, as we were all cooling down, most of us ordered Laurie's famous BLTs along with something cold to drink. It was a great day of golf.
